

THE PLAIN DEALER

Community News Briefs

Thursday, August 10, 2006

WARRENSVILLE HEIGHTS

Board sessions relocate

Anticipating a larger crowd since the teachers union has notified the district of its strike vote this week, the Warrensville Heights school board has moved its upcoming meetings to Warrensville Heights High School, 4270 Northfield Road. The board's work session will be at 7 p.m. tonight, and the regular meeting will be at 7 p.m. Monday.

CLEVELAND

'Run, Jane, Run' weekend

The Women's Center of Greater Cleveland will host its annual sports festival, "Run, Jane, Run," this weekend. A 9 a.m. Friday golf tournament will be at the Briarwood Golf Course, 2737 West Edgerton Road, Broadview Heights. A co-ed volleyball tournament is at 9 a.m. Saturday at Edgewater Park. The co-ed 10k run and 5k run/walk will be at 9 a.m. Sunday at Edgewater Park. Margaret Bobonich, from Survivor: Guatemala, is the festival's honorary chairwoman. For information, call 216-651-1450, or go online to www.womensctr.org.

Predatory lending talk

Ward 14 Councilman Joe Santiago and the Legal Aid Society of Cleveland invite residents to a seminar on predatory lending, foreclosures and payday loans at 5:30 p.m. Aug. 16 at the Hispanic Youth Center, 3146 Scranton Road. The program will be in Spanish and English. Refreshments will be provided. There were more than 500 home foreclosures in the West Side ward in the past 18 months, making it one of the city's hardest-hit neighborhoods. For information, call Legal Aid at 216-687-1900.

© 2006 The Plain Dealer

© 2006 cleveland.com All Rights Reserved.